

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT

This document must be signed by all authors and submitted with the manuscript.

SPJP organizers and Authors hereby agree as follows:

Title of manuscript: _____

The signing author(s) hereby relinquishes, transfers, and assigns all rights, title, interest, and copyright ownership of the submitted work for publication. The term "work" encompasses the material submitted for publication and any other associated content submitted to SPJP. In the event that publishing the said work becomes unfeasible, the author(s) will receive notification, and all rights assigned herein will revert to the author(s).

The grant of rights to SPJP encompasses, but is not explicitly restricted to, the rights to edit, publish, reproduce, distribute copies, include in indexes or search databases, in both print and electronic formats, regardless of whether these formats are in use at the time of executing this agreement. SPJP retains copyright claim over the work worldwide for the entire duration of the copyright, including any renewals or extensions.

SPJP is granted ownership of the work, entailing (1) copyright; (2) the authority to permit republishing of the article, either in its entirety or partially, with or without a fee; (3) the right to produce preprints or reprints and translate the work into languages other than English for either sale or free distribution; and (4) the right to republish the work in a compilation of articles in any other mechanical or electronic format.

The author(s) hereby affirm and assure that they are the sole author(s) of the work, that all authors have actively participated in and concur with the content and conclusions of the work, that the work does not violate any copyright, proprietary, or personal rights of any third party, and that no portion of it, nor any work based on substantially similar data, has been submitted to another publication.
